The movable assets are sold as a whole.

The starting price amounts to EUR 64,000.00, and the security deposit amounts to EUR 6,400.00.

The starting price does not include VAT or any other potential costs related to the transfer of ownership of the movable assets. These costs shall be borne by the buyer.

The buyer shall also bear the costs of NetBid GmbH, through which the public online auction with increasing starting price will be conducted. These costs amount to 18% of the final auction price achieved.

SECURITY DEPOSIT AMOUNT AND BANK ACCOUNT DETAILS

The security deposit for the assets for sale amounts to EUR 6,400.00.
The security deposit must be paid at least one working day before the public auction, i.e. no later than Wednesday, 29 July 2026, to the insolvency account of LIPIS d.o.o.
Account / IBAN: SI56 6400 0000 1085 247
Bank: Primorska hranilnica d.d.
Payment reference: "Security deposit for public auction – machinery"
Only bidders who have paid the security deposit in the above amount at least one working day before the public auction, i.e. no later than 29 July 2026, may participate in the public auction.
By paying the security deposit, each bidder, even if they are the only bidder, undertakes to participate in the public auction and to bid. If the bidder does not participate in the public auction or withdraws from the auction in such a way that they are not prepared to pay at least the starting price or an already offered price for the assets for sale, the bidder shall be obliged to pay the insolvency debtor a contractual penalty in the amount of the paid security deposit. The payment of the security deposit shall be deemed payment of the contractual penalty, and the insolvency debtor shall retain the paid amount of the security deposit.
If the bidder is not successful at the auction, the insolvency debtor must return the paid security deposit within three working days after the end of the public auction.
If the bidder is successful at the auction and concludes a purchase agreement in accordance with ZFPPIPP, the payment of the security deposit shall be deemed an earnest payment confirming the conclusion of the purchase agreement.

II. TERMS OF SALE

1. The assets subject to sale are sold in accordance with Article 340 of ZFPPIPP by public auction and without any warranty for material defects. The assets are sold according to the principle "as seen – as purchased". The movable assets, machinery and equipment are sold in their existing condition.
2. The starting price does not include taxes, duties or sales costs. All taxes, public charges and costs related to the transfer of ownership to the buyer shall be borne by the buyer. The successful bidder must pay the costs of the purchase agreement prepared by the attorney, in accordance with the attorney tariff. Based on the starting price, these costs amount to 1,000 points + VAT, i.e. EUR 600.00 + VAT.
3. Legal and natural persons may participate in the public auction, except for persons referred to in Article 337, paragraph 1 of ZFPPIPP. Before concluding the purchase agreement with the insolvency debtor, the buyer must provide a written statement confirming that there are no obstacles to concluding the agreement pursuant to Article 337, paragraph 1 of ZFPPIPP.
4. The insolvency debtor undertakes to conclude the purchase agreement with the bidder who offers the highest price at the auction.

5. The insolvency administrator, or the attorney on her behalf, must prepare the text of the purchase agreement to be signed by the insolvency administrator and the successful bidder no later than three working days after the end of the auction.
6. If the successful bidder does not sign the agreement within the time specified in the previous item, they must pay the debtor a contractual penalty for failure to fulfil the obligation to conclude the purchase agreement, in an amount equal to the security deposit. The payment of the security deposit shall be deemed payment of the contractual penalty, and the insolvency debtor shall retain the paid security deposit in accordance with Article 334 of ZFPPIPP.
7. The buyer must pay the remaining purchase price to the transaction account of the insolvency debtor no later than within three months after the conclusion of the purchase agreement.
8. If the buyer is more than 15 days late with payment of the purchase price, the insolvency debtor may withdraw from the purchase agreement without being required to grant the buyer an additional deadline for fulfilment, and may retain the received security deposit.
9. The insolvency debtor may not hand over possession of the sold assets to the buyer or perform any other legal acts for the transfer of ownership to the buyer until the buyer has paid the full purchase price. The transfer of ownership to the buyer shall be carried out after payment of the full purchase price and all prescribed taxes, duties and sales costs related to the sold assets.
10. For any rules of the public auction procedure that are not expressly regulated in this auction notice, the provisions of insolvency legislation and the regulations to which such legislation refers in the respective case shall apply directly.

III. RULES OF THE PUBLIC AUCTION

- The insolvency administrator has authorised NetBid GmbH, An der Mur 9, Straß in Steiermark, Austria, to conduct the public auction and to advertise the sale of the assets on the website http://www.netbid.com.
- The detailed rules of the public auction will be published by NetBid GmbH on the website http://www.netbid.com.
- The public auction will be conducted via the online platform of NetBid GmbH, http://www.netbid.com, which records each step of the bidder.
- Interested buyers, i.e. bidders, must register on the website http://www.netbid.com before the auction.
- The public auction will begin with the starting price. The successful bidder will be the bidder who offers the highest price at the public auction. If several bidders offer the same highest price, the successful bidder will be the bidder who was the first to offer the highest price. The public online auction ends with the publication of the notice of completion of the online auction.
- The sales costs via NetBid shall be borne by the buyer, as set out in Section I of this auction notice.
- By paying the security deposit, bidders accept all terms and conditions of the public auction as stated in this auction notice.
