2. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE PUBLIC AUCTION

- The public auction will be held online on TUESDAY, 25 August 2026, at 10:00 a.m.

- Bidders must pay the security deposit no later than one business day before the public auction. The deposit must be credited no later than one business day before the auction to the following transaction account of the debtor in bankruptcy:
SI56 0284 3026 6646 875 held with NLB d.d., payment reference: SECURITY DEPOSIT for the machinery and equipment of VAL KART d.o.o. – in bankruptcy.
- By paying the security deposit, each bidder – even if it is the only bidder – undertakes to participate in the public auction and submit bids. If a bidder does not participate in the public auction or withdraws from the auction and is unwilling to pay at least the starting price or the price already bid for the asset, the bidder shall pay the debtor in bankruptcy a contractual penalty equal to the security deposit paid. The security deposit shall be deemed payment of the contractual penalty and shall be retained by the debtor in bankruptcy.
- If the auction is successfully completed, the deposits shall be returned to the other bidders, except to a bidder who withdrew from the auction after offering a higher price than the successful bidder.
- The deadline for payment of the purchase price may not exceed 45 days from the conclusion of the sale and purchase agreement.
- The assets are sold on an "as seen and purchased" basis. The debtor in bankruptcy shall not be liable for material defects in the assets offered for sale.
- Domestic and foreign natural persons and legal entities may participate in the auction.
- The persons specified in Article 337 of the ZFPPIPP may not participate in the public auction procedure.
- Participating bidders must present an identity document. Representatives of legal entities must also submit a written authorisation and an extract from the court register for the represented legal entity.
- The starting price does not include any taxes or charges. Taxes and charges shall be invoiced to the buyer additionally in accordance with the applicable regulations. All duties and costs associated with the transfer of ownership and completion of the sale shall be borne in full by the buyer.
- The successful bidder will be sent the sale and purchase agreement, which must be validly signed, stamped where applicable, and returned to the debtor in bankruptcy no later than within three business days.

- If the successful bidder fails to return the signed agreement within three business days, the security deposit paid shall be deemed a contractual penalty and retained by the debtor in bankruptcy (paragraphs 6 and 7 of Article 335 of the ZFPPIPP).
- The persons with whom an agreement for the sale of the assets may not be concluded are specified in Article 337 of the applicable ZFPPIPP. Before conclusion of the agreement, the buyer must therefore provide the debtor in bankruptcy with a declaration confirming, under civil and criminal liability, that there are no obstacles to the conclusion of the sale and purchase agreement.
- The sale and purchase agreement will be concluded subject to the condition precedent that the court grants its consent to the agreement and subject to the condition subsequent that the agreement is terminated if the court refuses its consent.
- The security deposit paid by the highest bidder who concludes the sale and purchase agreement shall constitute earnest money evidencing conclusion of the agreement (point 6 of Article 333 of the ZFPPIPP) and shall be credited towards the purchase price. Bidders who are unsuccessful at the auction shall receive an interest-free refund of the security deposit within three business days after the auction.
- If the buyer fails to pay the purchase price within the agreed period and also fails to do so within 15 days after expiry of that period, the bankruptcy administrator shall be entitled to terminate the agreement already concluded without granting any additional period for performance. In such case, the security deposit paid shall be retained as a contractual penalty.
- Ownership of the assets shall be transferred and possession delivered to the buyer only after full payment of the purchase price, taxes and all costs associated with the transfer of ownership.
- Upon payment of the purchase price, any third-party rights over the assets forming the subject of the sale and purchase agreement, as referred to in Article 342(1) of the ZFPPIPP, shall cease.

3. CONDUCT OF THE PUBLIC AUCTION

The bankruptcy administrator has authorised NETBID GmbH, An der Mur 9, Straß in Steiermark, Austria (hereinafter “NetBid GmbH”), to conduct the public auction. NetBid GmbH will advertise the sale of the assets on the website http://www.netbid.com.

Detailed rules of the public auction will be published by NetBid GmbH on the website http://www.netbid.com.

The public auction will be conducted through the NetBid GmbH online platform at http://www.netbid.com, which records every action taken by a bidder. Bidders must register on the website http://www.netbid.com.

The public auction will commence at the starting price. The bidder offering the highest price shall be successful. If several bidders offer the same highest price, the bidder who submitted that price first shall be successful. The online public auction ends when a notice confirming the close of the auction is published.

The buyer shall bear the costs of the sale conducted through NetBid GmbH, as specified in point 1 of this notice.

4. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Further information about the assets offered for sale may be obtained from the bankruptcy administrator, mag. Marija Zimšek, by telephone on 041 322 234 on business days between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Inspection of the assets is possible by prior arrangement.
